Lynda,

Attached is a map of the current RI stormwater/snowmelt sampling locations.

NDEP has not provided us with a map of their monitoring locations. However, I believe that they have an interactive eMap that is associated with the Nevada 2014 Water Quality Integrated Report available on their website (<https://ndep.nv.gov/bwqp/303dlist2014.htm>). Assuming those are the NDEP monitoring locations that you are referring to.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Tony Brown at (657) 529-4573 or anthony.brown@bp.com.

Thanks,

Marc

Hello Marc/Tony,

I have this map of the storm water locations. But in search....

Wondering if you could you easily get me a map that shows the storm water/snow melt locations? Also the NDEP monitoring locations?

Best Regards,

Lynda Deschambault
